

Supply Chain Management at Infinera

Ming Chao, Director of Logistics and Trade Compliance

Abstract:

The speaker will present an overview of Infinera: technologies, products, markets, etc. Ming Chao will then discuss his role in supply chain / trade compliance, and the issues related to this role.

About the Speaker:

Ming Chao joined Infinera as Director of Logistic and Global Trade Compliance in 2017. He is responsible for developing and managing the company's logistic and global trade compliance; its strategic plans for Transmode Sweden merger.

Prior to joining Infinera, Ming held various roles including consulting and was Director of Trade Compliance at NetApp. Responsible for all in import and export activities worldwide and corporate wide initiatives such as risk management, new market development and M&A. Ming is a graduate of UC Santa Cruz in Information System 2004 (BS) and Santa Clara University 2010 (MBA).